BLACK BEAUTY

Anna Sewell

Illustrated by Christian Birmingham

- Complete and unabridged text.
- One of the most famous animal stories ever told.
- Has never been out of print since its publication over 140 years ago.
- 20 stunning full colour illustrations from critically-acclaimed illustrator Christian Birmingham.

This enchanting story of the bravery of a horse in Victorian Britain has captivated and enthralled so many generations of readers. Step back in time and see the world through Black Beauty's gentle and patient eyes, as he enjoys the pleasures and the hardships that fell to horses living in the 19th Century. Christian Birmingham's stunning new colour edition of Anna Sewell's classic tale is complete and unabridged, and the narrative voice of Black Beauty as fresh as the day the story was first published in 1877. Meet the compassionate heroes and hard-hearted rascals who Beauty encounters during his life and, above all, experience what it is to be a horse – to gallop on the soft grass and to hear a kind word in a moment of great need. It is truly a story you will never forget.

THE AUTHOR

Anna Sewell was a British writer. She wrote Black Beauty in the last years of her life and the novel was published just five months before her death. She would never know how successful the novel would become or how instrumental it was in bringing about reforms in laws and attitudes towards animal welfare. Black Beauty remains to this day one of the most famous animal stories of all time. It has sold an estimated 50 million copies since its publication 140 years ago.

Christian Birmingham is a British illustrator and artist who has illustrated Whitbread Children's Book of the Year The Wreck of the Zanzibar and Smarties prize-winning The Butterfly Lion, both by Michael Morpurgo. His illustrated edition of The Night Before Christmas has sold 1.5 million copies worldwide.

REFUGEES

Brian Bilston

Illustrated by José Sanabria

- A striking picture hardback gently depicting the plight of refugees.
- A talented and powerful voice from one of the UK's newest social media writers.
- Beautiful collage illustrations from a highly talented Colombian illustrator.

Refugees follows the lives of a group of people who are desperate to escape the darkness of their lives. We watch them hiding, sharing and working together to follow their dreams of a better life in a safer place. They have no way of knowing if they will succeed. The second voice follows them when they arrive, as they settle in their new home and how their skills and talents begin to shine.

This story shows both sides of the issue with skill and the illustrations depict the events in a magic realism style, powerful but never frightening, and will promote a deeper discussion on this topic with an older child.

THE AUTHOR

Brian Bilston is a secretive figure. His true identity is hidden behind his twitter account. From fragments of information pulled together from various social media feeds, we know he likes cycling, Vimto and dislikes Jeremy Clarkson. He is a published writer in anthologies. This is his first picture book.

José Sanabria was born in Columbia and lives in Argentina. He is a highly accomplished artist, illustrator and writer and his books are published around the world. This is his first book English Language book.

RISE UP!

THE ART OF PROTEST

Jo Rippon

In collaboration with Amnesty International

- A picture celebration of protest for children aged 8-12.
- Will cover protests of gender equality, civil rights, youth movements, anti-war, LGBT rights and climate change.
- Colour reproductions of protest poster art from the last 100 years.
- Foreword by political cartoonist and children's author, Chris Riddell.
- In collaboration with Amnesty International.

Human rights belong to every single one of us, but they are often under threat. We can use our rights to peaceful protest and freedom of expression to protect the powerless, give strength to the weak and speak for those who have no voice. It unites us in our journey to make the world a better place for everyone.

Rise Up! The Art of Protest looks at protests from the last 100 years, the ideas that inspired them and how these issues are being protested today. These posters have inspired generations of people to stand up for what they believe.

THE AUTHOR

Jo Rippon lives in London with her husband and children. She is a graduate of Central Saint Martins and the University for the Creative Arts. She is a writer and editor of books for adults on music and art.

THE STRANGE CASE OF DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE

Robert Louis Stevenson

Illustrated by Pete Williamson

- Brand new edition of the celebrated Victorian Gothic classic.
- Illustrated with 30 black and white gothic-inspired watercolour drawings by acclaimed illustrator Pete Williamson that capture the menace of the story.

"I have been doomed to such a dreadful shipwreck: that man is not truly one, but truly two."

In a quest to discover his inner self, celebrated physician Dr Henry Jekyll, uncovers a monster. At first he attempts to conceal this but gradually Hyde becomes stronger and stronger, dominating Jekyll and ultimately destroying them both.

First published to immediate acclaim in 1886, this mesmerising thriller is a terrifying study of the lightness and darkness living inside every human soul.

THE AUTHOR

Robert Louis Stevenson was born in Edinburgh in November 1850. He is best known for Treasure Island, The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, Kidnapped and The Master of Ballantrae.

Pete Williamson is an artist, illustrator and animation designer. His highly-acclaimed work includes the award-winning Dinkin Dings and the Frightening Things and the wonderful gothic pottiness of Marcus Sedgwick's The Raven Mysteries.

ROBINSON CRUSOE

Daniel Defoe
Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- A stunning full colour edition of the iconic tale
- 60 full colour images by a Hans Christian Andersen Award-winning artist
- Complete text, sympathetically edited for today's young readers

The adventures of Robinson Crusoe begin when he leaves his parents' house in York to search for adventure at sea. This leads to a thrilling tale of pirates, slavery, daring escapes and strange people. But it is when he is shipwrecked on an island after a terrible storm that he faces his greatest test. It is not enough to survive, he must thrive, and use all his knowledge and skills to accomplish this.

From its first publication in 1719, the adventures of Robinson Crusoe have continued to enthrall and inspire readers of all ages. It has been the subject of plays, operas, cartoons and computer games. The character of Crusoe has been embedded in every succeeding generation as readers add their own interpretations to the adventures so thrillingly conjured by Defoe.

Daniel Defoe (1660-1731), born Daniel Foe, was an English trader, writer, journalist and spy. He is most famous for his novel Robinson Crusoe which is second only to the Bible in its number of translations. Defoe was a prolific and versatile writer, producing more than three hundred works on diverse topics, including politics, crime, religion, marriage, psychology, and the supernatural.

Robert Ingpen was born in 1936 in Geelong, Australia. In 1986 he was awarded the Hans Christian Andersen Medal for his contribution to children's literature and he has been honoured with Membership of the Order of Australia.

ARTHUR HIGH KING OF BRITAIN

Michael Morpurgo

Illustrated by Michael Foreman

- A perennial Bookscan bestseller
- Over 80 original illustrations by Michael Foreman
- Beautiful new gift edition

Trapped on a sandbank, a young boy fears for his life as the sea closes in all around him. He is a strong swimmer, but the sea current is certain to drag him down into its depths. The last thing that he remembers in the cold, dark water is hoping that Heaven will be warm, dry and bright. Then he awakens in a grand hall and sitting by the fire is an old man with his dog. The old man is the legendary warrior King Arthur, and as he recovers by the fire, the boy hears the most magnificent stories of heroic knights and deeds of great chivalry, but also bewitchment, evil and betrayal at the king's court in Camelot.

Michael Morpurgo's captivating and imaginative retelling of the story of King Arthur is accompanied by the stunning illustrations created by Michael Foreman. Together they succeed in presenting the well-known legends in a way that is both captivating to read and a delight to the eye.

TALES FOR THE TELLING CLASSIC IRISH FOLK TALES

Edna O'Brien

Illustrated by Michael Foreman

- A perennial Bookscan bestseller
- Over 80 original illustrations by Michael Foreman
- Beautiful new gift edition

Tales for the Telling features traditional Irish folk and fairy tales, including 'The Magic Apples', 'The Swan Bride', 'Paddy the Piper' and 'Two Giants.' In 'Two Giants', Irish giant Finn, no longer in the first flush of youth, is challenged to do battle against Scottish giant McConigle, who aims to take over Finn's territory. The titanic clash is averted when Finn's clever wife, Oonagh manages to fool McConigle into thinking that Finn is twice the size he really is, and three times as strong.

O'Brien's giants, leprechauns, princesses and sorcerers are all brought beautifully to life by celebrated illustrator Michael Foreman, whose vigorous, colourful art heightens the drama of the stories while also adding to the magic and charm of this outstanding collection.

ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND

Lewis Carroll

Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- The complete and unabridged text
  - Over 70 original illustrations by Robert Ingpen

Lewis Carroll's classic tale began as a story told to a group of children on a boating picnic in 1862 and was first published as Alice's Adventures Under Ground three years later. Its curious effect of half-dream, half-nightmare instantly captured the imagination of both children and adults, and it has been a favourite ever since. Alice's adventures down the rabbit hole, in particular the strange characters she meets there – the constantly grinning Cheshire Cat, the Mad Hatter and the Queen of Hearts – have become world-famous, as have many of Carroll's verses.

Throughout the century and a half since its first publication, Alice's story has been illustrated in many editions. This beautiful edition brings together the complete and unabridged text with more than 70 stunning illustrations by Robert Ingpen, each reflecting his unique style and extraordinary imagination in visualising this enchanting story.

ALICE THROUGH THE LOOKING-GLASS

Lewis Carroll

Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- The complete and unabridged text
  - Over 70 original illustrations by Robert Ingpen

When Alice steps through the looking-glass in the drawing room one drowsy winter afternoon, she finds herself in a peculiar, topsy-turvy world where chess pieces walk about, flowers talk and nothing is quite as it seems. Alice is caught up in a bizarre chess game and encounters some rather eccentric characters – including the argumentative Tweedledum and Tweedledee and Humpty Dumpty. The story features the poems, 'The Walrus and the Carpenter' and 'Jabberwocky', which have become just as well-known as Alice's adventures themselves.

The award-winning artist Robert Ingpen has illustrated Lewis Carroll's enchanting sequel to Alice's Adventures in Wonderland in this sumptuous volume. Full of anarchic humour, witty rhymes and sparkling word play, it will delight new readers and devoted Alice fans alike.

JUST SO STORIES

Rudyard Kipling

Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- The complete and unabridged text
- Over 70 original illustrations by Robert Ingpen

How did the whale get his throat? Why was the lazy camel lumbered with a hump? And how did the elephant's insatiable curiosity earn him a trunk?

Kipling first invented these delightful, warm and humorous stories about the beginning of the world and the first animals in it for his own daughter, Josephine, who tragically died when she was six. Devastated by her loss, Kipling compiled the stories they had shared together into a treasury, which was first published in 1902. Conjuring up distant lands and exotic jungles, the imaginative tales are bewitching for both children and adults.

This new edition brings together the complete and unabridged text (including the thirteenth story, The Tabu Tale, which is often excluded from modern publications). Award-winning artist Robert Ingpen has interpreted and enriched the stories with stunning new illustrations that bring an unforgettable cast of extraordinary animal characters to life.

PETER PAN AND WENDY

J.M. Barrie

Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- The complete and unabridged text
- Over 70 original illustrations by Robert Ingpen

Robert Ingpen's beautiful illustrations breathe new life into this most famous of modern fairy stories. This classic tale of a boy who wouldn't grow up has retained its popularity since publication, first as a play and then as a novel in 1911. Following his death in 1937, J.M. Barrie left his royalties in perpetuity to Great Ormond Street Children's Hospital and this magnificent edition was published to commemorate the centenary of first publication and to continue as a fundraiser.

Robert first attempted illustrating this classic when he was only seven years old and, remarkably, still has his early drawings. The mature work demonstrated in this, his first classic of the series, captivates the reader as they embark upon the astonishing adventures of Peter Pan and Wendy, the Lost Boys, the mischievous fairy Tinkerbell and the notorious Captain Hook.

Kenneth Grahame's classic tale was first published in 1908, and children and adults alike fell in love with the timid Mole, the friendly Water Rat, the erudite Badger, the mischievous Toad, and a host of other unforgettable creatures. The quiet life they lead on the banks of the River Thames is interspersed with adventures, normally instigated by Toad, who has a propensity for trouble.

Over the years, the animals' adventures have been brought to life by many artists, including E. H. Shepard, who illustrated the original edition, and Arthur Rackham. This magnificent new edition brings the story to life with more than 70 new illustrations by award-winning artist Robert Ingpen, so fans of all ages can relive – or enjoy for the first time – this heart-warming tale.

THE SECRET GARDEN

Frances Hodgson Burnett

Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- The complete and unabridged text
- Over 70 original illustrations by Robert Ingpen

When spoiled rich girl, Mary Lennox, is orphaned, she is shipped from India to live in her uncle's enormous manor in faraway England. The lonely girl is forbidden to play in most of the imposing house – struggling to adjust to her new surroundings, she goes out into the grounds every day. Before long, Mary finds a key to a secret garden that has been left untouched for ten years, and a whole new world of enchantment opens up to her. For the first time, she learns to make friends – with the talented animal-charmer, Dickon, and her sickly cousin, Colin, who has been hidden away behind closed doors – and between them, the three children truly flourish as the garden reveals its haunting secrets.

First published in 1911, Frances Hodgson Burnett's story is one of the best-loved children's books of the early twentieth century. This beautiful new edition brings together the complete and unabridged text with over seventy evocative illustrations and botanical studies by the award-winning artist Robert Ingpen.

A Christmas Carol

Charles Dickens

Illustrated by Robert Ingpen

- The complete and unabridged text
  - Over 70 original illustrations by Robert Ingpen

This classic seasonal tale of self-discovery has become one of Charles Dickens's most famous and best-loved works. On Christmas Eve, the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge is haunted by the ghost of his former business partner Jacob Marley, who warns him that he will be visited by three spirits. During the night, the ghosts of Christmas Past, Christmas Present and Christmas Yet to Come show Scrooge the scenes of his youth, the poverty-stricken Christmas currently being endured by his loyal clerk Bob Cratchitt and his crippled son Tiny Tim – and the lonely future that awaits him if he continues in his grasping ways. He awakes on Christmas morning chastened by his nocturnal experiences, and resolves to be a better man.

This volume also includes Dickens's short story, 'A Christmas Tree', with its evocative description of the delights of the season, which provides perfect fireside reading once the gifts are unwrapped. With stunning, atmospheric illustrations that evoke Dickensian London at Christmas time, award-winning artist Robert Ingpen has worked his wonders on this timeless tale.
